

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.

MONDAY EVENING, JULY 11.

Mrs. PICKETT'S TRIBUTE.—Capt. E. P. Reeve, commander of Pickett's Division Association, has received a letter from Mrs. Pickett, widow of the late Confederate General Geo. E. Pickett. In returning thanks for the courtesies extended to her at the recent Gettysburg reunion, she says on behalf of herself and son: "And not only to our brave boys, but to the gallant ex-soldiers and citizens of Pennsylvania are we indebted for courtesies that can never be forgotten. Words cannot convey our gratitude, and time cannot efface the hallowed memories of the events of July 23, 3d and 4th, 1863. Regal entertainments has its expression in lavish expenditures of money, empty display of pomp and splendor; but our entertainment was a lavish expenditure of soul—a display of chivalry and heartfelt rivalry, wherein the men of Pennsylvania vied with our own cherished sons in doing honor to us, not for any merit of our own, but in memory of the brave, chivalric soldier and loving and devoted husband and father, who has gone to his reward. Please convey to all as far as possible, in manner most congenial to yourself, the thanks we fail to find words to express, being assured, however, that we will feel that the measure of our cup of joy will be full and running over. As a result of the reunion, the bitterness of the past are buried, and the brave and loyal hearts of both North and South are firmly cemented in the bonds of union under the old stars and stripes, the emblem of our fathers, in defense of which at home and on foreign soil the sons of the South have fought as valiantly as under our loved and cherished stars and bars, now laid away, sacred only to memory."

"Thousands of women bless the day on which Dr. Pierce's 'Favorite Prescription' was made known to them. In all those derangements causing backache, dragging-down sensations, nervous and general debility, it is a sovereign remedy. Its soothing and healing properties render it of the utmost value to ladies suffering from 'internal fever,' congestion, inflammation, or ulceration. By druggists."

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.
Mrs. Winkler's SMOOTHING SYRUP, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhoea, griping in the bowels, and wind-colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Price 25 cents a bottle.
